Lebara People's Choice Nominees Announced

Today, The Asian Awards in partnership with Lebara announced the four world-class nominees of the Lebara People's Choice Award. The 2011 nominees have been chosen for the outstanding contribution they make to their profession whilst engaging and inspiring millions of people across the globe to be the best they can be.

Launched and awarded to cricket legend Sachin Tendulkar in 2010, the Lebara People's Choice award is the only Asian Awards accolade that is voted for by the general public. A panel of Senior Executives and industry professionals will also debate and place their vote to decide who should ultimately win the 2011 accolade. Both the judging and public vote will carry equal weight in the final award decision. Visit www.lebara.co.uk/asianawards to review nomination details and place your vote – voting is open to midnight on Friday 16th September 2011.

Ratheesan Yoganathan, CEO Lebara commented: "We are extremely proud to sponsor the Asian Awards – honouring Asian excellence and achievements from all walks of life. These four nominees are all fantastic role models for future generations and it means a great deal to me that we are able to recognise this talent and give our customers the chance to vote for their favourite nominee."
